

Summary of R&D incentives worldwide

- Virtually every industrialized country provides some level of incentive for R&D.
- RDBASE is designed to organize the R&D process to complete these claims.

An excellent summary of these incentives is provided by the OECD

- Summary of R&D tax incentive schemes for OECD & selected economies - 2013 (130 pages)

Varying degrees of additional details are also provided by 3 of the large accounting firms

- Global R&D Incentives – 2014 PwC (32 pages)
- Global Survey of R&D Tax Incentives – 2014 Deloitte (85 pages)
